If You Read This

It will be to learn that the leading medical writers and teachers of all the several schools of practice recommend, in the strongest terms possible, each and every ingredient entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for the cure of weak stomach, dyspepsia, catarrh of stomach, "liver complaint," torpid liver, or biliousness, chronic bowels, and all catarrhal diseases of whatever region, name or nature. It is also a specific remedy for all such chronic or long standing cases of catarrhal affections and their results, as bronchitis, throat and lung disease (except consumption) accompanied with severe coughs. It is not so good for acute colds and coughs, but for lingering, or chronic cases it is especially efficacious in producing perfect cures. It contains Black Cherry bark, Golden Seal root, Bloodroot, Sassafras, Mandrake root and Queen's root—all of which are highly praised as remedies for all the above mentioned affections by such eminent medical writers and teachers as Prof. Bartholomew of Jefferson Med. College; Prof. Hare of the Univ. of Pa.; Prof. Finley of Howard, M. D. of Benning Med. College, Chicago; Prof. John M. D. of Cincinnati; Prof. John W. Sedgwick, M. D. of Cincinnati; Prof. Edwin M. D. of Hahnemann Med. College, Chicago, and scores of others equally eminent in their several schools of practice.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is the only medicine that has been shown to be a safe, reliable, and effective remedy for all the above mentioned affections. Open publicity of its formula is the best possible guaranty of its merits. A glance at this published formula will show that "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no poisonous, harmful or habit-forming drugs and no alcohol-chemically pure, triplicate-glycerine being used instead. Glycerine is entirely unobjectionable and besides is a most useful agent in the cure of all stomach and bowels. There is the highest medical authority for its use in all such cases. The "Discovery" is a concentrated glyceric extract of native medicinal roots and herbs, and scores of medical authorities, endorsing its ingredients, are listed on request. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

TRAPS WIFE BY PHONE.

A jealous husband, an incautious wife and telephone conversation in Chicago yesterday.

This combination produced a chain of events which included the boxing of the ears of Mrs. Jesse Rosen, formerly of Meadville, Pa., by her husband, while, he insisted, she was expecting to meet another man, on a crowded street in Hammond, and Rosen's immediate commitment to jail for six months.

Rosen recently became imbued with the idea that Mrs. Rosen's love for him was being diverted to another. After much thought he devised a plan to confirm his suspicions. He would call her on the telephone, represent himself as his rival and await developments. He carried out the plan.

"Is that you, dearie?" he inquired tenderly, disguising his tones as much as possible, when the voice of his wife sounded in the receiver.

Receiving the required assurance that it was indeed "dearie" he pursued the advantage with the further inquiry:

"Can you meet me this afternoon in Hammond at the postoffice?"

Mrs. Rosen could not would. At the hour appointed Rosen was at the trying place. Fire was in his eyes and he glowered at every man that passed while he waited, so that one or two of the corner sort demanded to know, "Who're you looking at?"

Then Mrs. Rosen appeared. She was attired in what Mr. Rosen considered entirely too much style merely for the keeping of an engagement with a man other than himself, and he thought she frowned with vexation when she saw him instead of the man he believed she expected.

So, without a word, he stepped up and boxed her ears.

He was about to do it again, when Mrs. Rosen, recovering from her amazement, screamed "Murder!" twice, and two cops grabbed Rosen.

Can you believe your senses?

When two of them, taste and smell, having been impaired, if not utterly destroyed, by No. 1 Catarrh, are fully restored by Ely's Cream Balm, can you doubt that this remedy deserves all that has been said of it by the thousands who have used it? It is applied directly to the inflamed air-passage and begins its healing work at once. Why not get it today? All druggists or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren Street, New York, on receipt of 50 cents.

NEW CATHOLIC MARRIAGE LAWS.

In the Catholic churches of the diocese of Richmond the encyclical recently issued by Pope Pius X., which will govern the marriage of Catholics after Easter, is now being read and explained by the parish priests. The following is published with the authority of Bishop Van de Vyver as an exposition of the principal prescriptions which will effect all Catholics:

"In regard to espousals, or betrothals, no engagements or mutual promises to marry made on or after next Easter, will have an effect before the church, unless they have been contracted in writing, signed or marked by both the parties and by either the parish priest, or the ordinary of the place, or at least by two witnesses.

"In regard to marriages of Catholics, those only will be valid which are contracted before a parish priest, meaning here one having charge of souls, or an ordinary; that is, a bishop, within their own territory, or by a priest delegated by either of these and at least two witnesses. Where such a priest cannot be found, parties may, when necessary, after a month, contract privately in presence of two witnesses; and, in danger of death, they may marry before a priest and two witnesses.

"Hence, in the future, persons that are, or ever were, Catholics, cannot, as they could heretofore, contract a valid marriage before a non-Catholic minister, a magistrate or of any kind or privately between themselves. Before the church and before God such unions, even when sanctioned by the State, will be a mere concubinage, which, to become a valid marriage, will require not only the blessing of the priest, but the very renewal of the matrimonial contract, in the presence of the duly accredited representative of the church; and the persons who thus married before a minister will yet continue to incur the excommunication reserved to a bishop for absolution.

"Marriages of Catholics, contracted in the manner described above, are valid and indissoluble; but, therefore, they are not always lawful. To be allowed and free from sin they must be celebrated before the own pastor of the parties, who, as a rule, should be the pastor of the bride, or before a priest deputed or allowed by him.

"Let the faithful, parents as well as their children who are intending to marry, bear in mind these salutary regulations, and let them act accordingly. By the observance of them, many ill-considered unions, followed by dissensions, separations and would-be divorces, will be avoided and the family life of Catholics will be pacified, purified and strengthened. Marriages attempted, but illegal and null, will be avoided, annulments and divorces and the consequent scandals which disrupt families, deprive children of their natural protectors and threaten the social life of the nation will cease to be so frequent. It will be easier to live up to the precept of Christ: "What God hath joined together let no man put asunder." (Matt. xix. 6.)"
